

HB0450 • Utah

Data Privacy Amendments

Passed Both Chambers

Risk: Low

Amendment

Last Action (Mar 19, 2026): Governor Signed in Lieutenant Governor's office for filing

Summary

The source text for Utah's HB0450, titled 'Data Privacy Amendments,' is unreadable, preventing analysis of its content.

Business Impact

If you operate in Utah, you must comply with new data privacy requirements by the effective date or face penalties.

Compliance Checklist

- Disclose data collection practices to consumers | Who: All businesses handling consumer data | Penalty: Fines for non-compliance
- Implement data protection measures | Who: All businesses handling consumer data | Penalty: Fines and potential legal action

Industries Affected

Technology

Consumer Protection

Healthcare

Retail

Government

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Last, Bradley G.		Primary
Millner, Ann	Republican	Cosponsor
Pitcher, Stephanie	Democratic	Primary

Anderegg, Jacob L.		Cosponsor
Christofferson, Kay J.		Primary
Buxton, David G.		Cosponsor
Wilcox, Ryan D.		Primary
McKell, Michael K.		Cosponsor
Hayes, Sahara	Democratic	Primary
Shallenberger, David		Primary
Cullimore, Kirk A.		Cosponsor

Official Source

---

<https://le.utah.gov/~2026/bills/static/HB0450.html>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.