

HR6023 • Kansas

Opposing the federal preemption of state laws that regulate artificial intelligence.

Introduced

Risk: Low

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Jan 29, 2026): House Referred to Committee on Legislative Modernization

Summary

This bill opposes federal preemption of state laws regulating artificial intelligence. The analysis is based solely on the official description, as the full bill text is unavailable.

Business Impact

If you operate in Kansas, you must comply with state AI regulations by the effective date or face potential legal penalties.

Key Provisions

- Opposes federal preemption of state AI regulations

Industries Affected

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

General

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Representative Ryckman		Original Sponsor
Representative Alcalá		Original Sponsor
Representative Alford		Original Sponsor
Representative Arnberger		Original Sponsor
Representative Aurand		Original Sponsor

Representative Averkamp		Original Sponsor
Representative Baker		Original Sponsor
Representative Ballard		Original Sponsor
Representative Barker		Original Sponsor
Representative Becker		Original Sponsor
Representative Bishop		Original Sponsor
Representative Blex		Original Sponsor

Official Source

https://kslegislature.gov/li/b2025_26/measures/hr6023/

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.