

HB1709 • Texas

Relating to the regulation and reporting on the use of artificial intelligence systems by certain business entities and state agencies; providing civil penalties.

Introduced

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Last Action (Mar 14, 2025): Referred to Delivery of Government Efficiency

Summary

The bill regulates AI systems used by businesses and state agencies in Texas, imposing civil penalties for non-compliance.

Business Impact

If you use AI systems in Texas, you must comply with new reporting regulations or face civil penalties.

Key Provisions

- Regulates the use of AI systems by certain business entities and state agencies.
- Requires reporting on the use of AI systems.
- Imposes civil penalties for non-compliance.

Compliance Checklist

- Report the use of AI systems as required by the bill. | Who: Business entities and state agencies using AI. | Penalty: Civil penalties for non-compliance.

Industries Affected

Consumer Protection

Government

Education

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

Housing

Finance

Healthcare

Topics

AI in Government

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Neave		Primary
White		Primary
Moody		Primary
Crockett		Primary
Ramos		Primary
Capriglione		Primary
González, Mary	Democratic	Primary
Frank		Primary
Menéndez		Primary
Canales		Primary

Official Source

<https://capitol.texas.gov/BillLookup/History.aspx?LegSess=89R&Bill;=HB1709>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.