

H0917 • Idaho

Adds to existing law to require the use of AI to review administrative rules annually.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Mar 17, 2026): Reported Printed and Referred to Business

Summary

This bill mandates the annual review of administrative rules in Idaho using AI, with specific exceptions, limitations, and oversight measures detailed in the bill text.

Business Impact

If you operate in Idaho, you must use AI to review administrative rules annually by January 1, 2025, or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Mandates annual review of administrative rules using AI, with specific exceptions, limitations, and oversight measures detailed in the bill text.

Compliance Checklist

- Implement AI systems for annual rule reviews | Who: State agencies | Penalty: Potential operational inefficiencies

Industries Affected

Government

Regulatory Compliance

General

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
------	-------	------

Official Source

<https://legislature.idaho.gov/sessioninfo/2026/legislation/H0917/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.