

HB1027 • United States (Federal)

QUIET Act Quashing Unwanted and Interruptive Electronic Telecommunications Act

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Feb 06, 2025): Sponsor introductory remarks on measure. (CR H519)

Summary

Amends the Communications Act of 1934 to require AI robocall disclosures, enhance penalties for AI impersonation, and outlines exemptions and disclosure conditions.

Business Impact

If you use AI for robocalls, you must disclose this or face enhanced penalties.

Key Provisions

- Amends the Communications Act of 1934.
- Requires disclosures for robocalls using AI.
- Enhances penalties for AI impersonation in voice or text messages, including fines and imprisonment.
- Exempts certain emergency services and government communications from disclosure requirements.
- Specifies disclosure conditions, format as a pre-call announcement, and timing at the beginning of the call.

Compliance Checklist

- Implement disclosure systems for AI-generated robocalls | Who: Telecommunication service providers | Penalty: Fines for non-compliance
- Ensure compliance with impersonation penalties | Who: Companies using AI for communications | Penalty: Legal repercussions and fines

Industries Affected

Topics

AI Calling

AI Transparency

Comprehensive AI

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Eric Sorensen	D	Sponsor
Juan Ciscomani	R	Sponsor
Eric Swalwell	D	Sponsor
Brian Fitzpatrick	R	Sponsor
Darren Soto	D	Sponsor
Eleanor Norton	D	Sponsor
Raul Grijalva	D	Sponsor
Eugene Vindman	D	Sponsor
Gil Cisneros	D	Sponsor
Zachary Nunn	R	Sponsor
Thomas Suozzi	D	Sponsor
Sarah McBride	D	Sponsor

Related Bills

- SB3354 (US)

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/house-bill/1027/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.