

SB3354 • United States (Federal)

QUIET Act Quashing Unwanted and Interruptive Electronic Telecommunications Act

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Dec 04, 2025): Read twice and referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

Summary

SB3354 is a federal bill amending the Communications Act of 1934 to mandate disclosures for AI-driven robocalls, focusing on impersonation based on the official description.

Business Impact

If you use AI for robocalls, you must disclose AI use or face enhanced penalties.

Key Provisions

- Specifies disclosures for AI-driven robocalls, focusing on impersonation, under the Communications Act of 1934. Full text specifics are unavailable.
- Specifies enhanced penalties for AI-related impersonation violations. Full text specifics are unavailable.

Compliance Checklist

- Implement disclosure protocols for AI-driven robocalls | Who: Telecommunications providers | Penalty: Enhanced fines for non-compliance
- Establish measures to prevent AI impersonation | Who: AI developers and telecommunications companies | Penalty: Increased penalties for violations

Industries Affected

Consumer Protection

Technology

Artificial Intelligence

Telecommunications

Topics

AI Calling

AI Transparency

Comprehensive AI

Related Bills

- HB1027 \(US\)

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/senate-bill/3354/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.