

A09449 • New York

Implements transparency requirements for developers of AI models; requires the establishment of an office for oversight of AI model developer transparency and reporting; makes related provisions.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Feb 25, 2026): substituted by s8828

Summary

The bill mandates transparency for AI model developers and includes a distinct provision for establishing an oversight office.

Business Impact

If you develop AI models, you must publish a transparency framework or face compliance checks.

Key Provisions

- Specific developer obligations are pending verification.
- Developers may be required to submit transparency reports to the oversight office, pending verification.
- The oversight office is a distinct provision responsible for monitoring compliance, pending verification.
- Penalties for non-compliance are pending verification.

Compliance Checklist

- Publish a frontier AI framework detailing risk management practices | Who: Large frontier developers
- Report critical safety incidents to the office | Who: Large frontier developers

Industries Affected

Topics

AI Transparency

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Eddie Gibbs	Democratic	Primary
Chris Burdick	Democratic/Independence/ Working Families	Cosponsor
Sarahana Shrestha	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
Demond Meeks	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
PRETLOW		Primary
Alex Bores	Democratic/Working Families	Primary

Related Bills

- S08828 (NY)
- S 8828 (NY)

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/A9449>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.