

SB321 • United States (Federal)

Retirement Security Act of 2019

Introduced

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Last Action (Feb 04, 2019): Read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance. (Sponsor introductory remarks on measure: CR S834-835)

Summary

SB321 reportedly prohibits U.S. persons and entities from advancing AI capabilities in China, based on the official description. Full bill text is unavailable for verification.

Business Impact

If you operate in AI development, you must cease all advancements in China by January 1, 2026, or face significant penalties.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits U.S. persons and entities from advancing AI capabilities in China, based on the official description.
- The presence of enforcement mechanisms and penalties for non-compliance is unverified.
- The existence of exceptions for humanitarian and educational activities is unverified.
- The definition of 'advancing AI capabilities' is unverified.

Compliance Checklist

- Cease any AI-related activities that could benefit China. | Who: All U.S. persons and entities involved in AI. | Penalty: Potential legal repercussions.

Industries Affected

Employment

Finance

Government

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Susan Collins	R	Sponsor
Margaret Hassan	D	Sponsor

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/116th-congress/senate-bill/321/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.