

SB4487 • United States (Federal)

Small Business Artificial Intelligence Training Act of 2024

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Aug 01, 2024): Placed on Senate Legislative Calendar under General Orders. Calendar No. 487.

Summary

The Small Business Artificial Intelligence Training Act of 2024 mandates the Secretary of Commerce to create AI training resources for small businesses.

Business Impact

If you operate a small business in the U.S., you must utilize the AI training resources developed by the Secretary of Commerce once available.

Key Provisions

- Requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop AI training resources for small businesses.
- Aims to support small businesses in integrating AI technologies.

Compliance Checklist

- Utilize the AI training resources once developed | Who: Small businesses in the U.S. | Penalty: No specified penalties for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Technology

General

Small Business

Topics

Comprehensive AI

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Maria Cantwell	D	Sponsor
Jerry Moran	R	Sponsor
Charles Schumer	D	Sponsor

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/118th-congress/senate-bill/4487/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.