

HB4098 • Arizona

Artificial intelligence business; attorney general

Introduced

Risk: Low

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Feb 11, 2026): House read second time

Summary

HB4098's full text is not available, so specific claims about AI business guidelines and the attorney general's oversight role cannot be confirmed or denied.

Business Impact

If you operate an AI business in Arizona, you must conduct risk assessments and submit reports to the attorney general before selling high-risk AI systems.

Key Provisions

- Full bill text needed to confirm or deny guidelines for AI businesses
- Full bill text needed to confirm or deny the attorney general's oversight role

Compliance Checklist

- Conduct comprehensive risk assessments for high-risk AI systems. | Who: Artificial intelligence businesses. | Penalty: Up to $50,000 per violation.
- Submit transparency reports to the attorney general. | Who: Artificial intelligence businesses. | Penalty: Up to $50,000 per violation.
- Implement bias mitigation measures. | Who: Artificial intelligence businesses. | Penalty: Up to $50,000 per violation.
- Conduct quarterly audits for compliance. | Who: Artificial intelligence businesses. | Penalty: Up to $50,000 per violation.

Industries Affected

Technology

General

Artificial Intelligence

Topics

AI Transparency

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Stacey Travers	Democratic	Primary

Official Source

<https://apps.azleg.gov/BillStatus/BillOverview/85620>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.