

S10425 • New York

Requires policing agencies to conduct an inventory of, and develop a publicly-available policy for, any artificial intelligence used to aid criminal investigations.

Introduced

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Last Action (May 15, 2026): REFERRED TO CODES

Summary

This bill mandates policing agencies in New York to inventory and develop a publicly available policy for AI used in criminal investigations.

Business Impact

If you operate a policing agency in New York, you must disclose your AI systems and their use by 2026 or face civil action.

Key Provisions

- Policing agencies must conduct an inventory of AI systems used in investigations.
- Agencies must develop a publicly available policy for AI systems.

Compliance Checklist

- Publish a disclosure of AI systems used | Who: Policing agencies | Penalty: Civil action may be initiated by the attorney general or individuals.
- Adopt the model policy for AI use | Who: Policing agencies | Penalty: Civil action may be initiated for non-compliance.

Industries Affected

Public Safety

Law Enforcement

Bill Sponsors

---

Name	Party	Role
Kristen Gonzalez	D	Sponsor

Related Bills

---

- A09253 (NY)

Official Source

---

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/S10425>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.