

HB8229 • United States (Federal)

To prohibit certain uses of algorithmic decision systems to inform individualized prices for food, groceries, and agricultural commodities, and for other purposes.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Apr 09, 2026): Referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned.

Summary

HB8229 aims to prohibit certain uses of algorithmic decision systems for individualized pricing of food, groceries, and agricultural commodities. This analysis is preliminary and will be updated with exceptions and enforcement details.

Business Impact

If you use AI for pricing food, you must review practices or face potential restrictions.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits certain uses of algorithmic decision systems for individualized pricing of food, groceries, and agricultural commodities. This analysis is preliminary and specific provisions, exceptions, and enforcement details will be updated once the full text is available.

Compliance Checklist

- Review and adjust pricing strategies to eliminate individualized pricing based on algorithmic systems. | Who: Retailers and agricultural producers | Penalty: To be determined based on enforcement provisions

Industries Affected

General

Food Retail

Retail

Agriculture

Topics

Algorithmic Pricing

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Christopher Pappas	D	Sponsor

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/house-bill/8229/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.