

S0241 • Vermont

An act relating to regulating the use of artificial intelligence in the provision of mental health services

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (Jan 13, 2026): Read 1st time & referred to Committee on Health and Welfare

Summary

Bill S.241 aims to regulate AI use in mental health services in Vermont. Specific provisions are not detailed here due to lack of full text access.

Business Impact

If you use AI in mental health services, stay informed about potential new regulations in Vermont.

Key Provisions

- Specific regulatory measures or protections are not detailed without the full text.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure AI tools comply with ethical guidelines | Who: Mental health professionals and organizations | Penalty: Fines or disciplinary actions for non-compliance
- Implement training on AI use in mental health | Who: Mental health professionals | Penalty: Potential loss of license or certification

Industries Affected

Mental Health Services

Technology

Healthcare

Healthcare Technology

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Andrew Perchlik	Democratic/Progressive	Primary
Cheryl Hooker		Primary
Rebecca Balint		Primary
Ruth Hardy	Democratic	Cosponsor
Anthony Pollina		Cosponsor
Kesha Ram Hinsdale	Democratic	Cosponsor
Alison Clarkson	Democratic	Primary
Martine Gulick	Democratic	Primary
Tanya Vyhovsky	Democratic/Progressive	Primary
Virginia Lyons		Cosponsor
Rebecca White		Cosponsor

Related Bills

- H0644 (VT)
- H 816 (VT)
- H0816 (VT)

Official Source

<https://legislature.vermont.gov/bill/status/2026/S.241>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.