

H7190 • Rhode Island

Promotes transparency and accountability in the use of artificial intelligence by health insurers to manage coverage and claims.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Mar 03, 2026): Committee recommended measure be held for further study

Summary

This bill aims to promote transparency and accountability in AI use by health insurers in Rhode Island. This analysis is based on the official description, not the full bill text.

Business Impact

If you operate as a health insurer in Rhode Island, you must ensure transparency in AI use for coverage and claims by [date] or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- The bill aims to promote transparency in AI systems used by insurers, but specific compliance requirements cannot be confirmed without the full text.
- The bill's definition of 'AI system' is not available without the full text.
- Information on penalties or enforcement mechanisms is not available without the full text.
- The impact on stakeholders and the healthcare system cannot be assessed without the full text.

Compliance Checklist

- Disclose the use of AI in managing coverage and claims | Who: Health insurers | Penalty: To be determined by regulatory authorities
- Provide clear information on AI's impact on insurance decisions | Who: Health insurers | Penalty: To be determined by regulatory authorities

Industries Affected

Finance

Technology

Healthcare

Healthcare
Technology

Health Insurance

Topics

AI in Insurance

AI Transparency

Comprehensive AI

Related Bills

- H5172 (RI)
- S2010 (RI)
- SB 2010 (RI)
- S13 (RI)

Official Source

<https://status.rilegislature.gov/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.