

A09097 • New York

Requires disclosure of use of generative artificial intelligence to clients, criminal defendants, and the court.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Jan 07, 2026): referred to judiciary

Summary

Bill A09097 requires disclosure of generative AI use to clients, defendants, and the court in New York, based on the title and description.

Business Impact

If you use AI in legal services, you must disclose it to clients and the court.

Key Provisions

- Requires disclosure of generative AI use to clients, criminal defendants, and the court, based on the title and description.

Compliance Checklist

- Disclose the use of generative AI in legal proceedings | Who: Legal professionals and attorneys | Penalty: Potential legal challenges or accountability issues

Industries Affected

Technology

Consumer Protection

Law Enforcement

Legal Services

Topics

AI Transparency

Bill Sponsors

---

Name	Party	Role
GOTTFRIED R		Primary
STECK		Primary
Michaëlle C. Solages	Democratic	Primary
Keith Brown	Republican/Conservative/Independence	Primary
Joe DeStefano	Republican/Conservative	Cosponsor

Related Bills

---

- A 9097 (NY)

Official Source

---

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/A9097>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.