

H7349 • Rhode Island

Establishes regulations regarding the use of artificial intelligence in mental health care treatments.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (Mar 03, 2026): Committee recommended measure be held for further study

Summary

Bill H7349 aims to regulate AI use in mental health care treatments in Rhode Island. Specific provisions and impacts will be detailed once the full bill text is available.

Business Impact

If you operate in mental health care in Rhode Island, you must comply with AI regulations by the effective date or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Regulatory measures for AI implementation in mental health care will be detailed upon access to the full bill text to determine specific provisions and affected stakeholders.

Compliance Checklist

- Adhere to established regulations for AI use in mental health treatments. | Who: Mental health professionals and organizations. | Penalty: Fines or disciplinary actions for non-compliance.
- Integrate AI technologies following the mandated guidelines. | Who: Mental health providers utilizing AI. | Penalty: Potential fines or other penalties for failure to comply.

Industries Affected

Healthcare

Healthcare Technology

Technology

Mental Health Care

Topics

Related Bills

- S2197 (RI)
- SB 2197 (RI)

Official Source

<https://status.rilegislature.gov/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.