

HB 1725 • New Hampshire

relative to the regulation of artificial intelligence technologies.

Dead/Failed

Risk: Low

Comprehensive

Last Action (Feb 19, 2026): Inexpedient to Legislate: MA VV 02/19/2026 HJ 5 P. 7

Summary

This bill addresses the regulation of artificial intelligence technologies in New Hampshire. Specific provisions are unknown due to the unavailability of the full bill text.

Business Impact

If you operate AI technologies in New Hampshire, you must comply with forthcoming regulations or face potential penalties.

Key Provisions

- Specific provisions are unknown due to the unavailability of the full bill text.

Compliance Checklist

- Review and assess AI technologies in use | Who: Organizations utilizing AI | Penalty: Potential fines or sanctions
- Develop compliance protocols for AI deployment | Who: Compliance officers in affected industries | Penalty: Possible legal repercussions

Industries Affected

General

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
------	-------	------

Related Bills

- HB1725 (NH)

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/nh/bills/2026/HB1725/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.