

S01962 • New York

Enacts the "New York artificial intelligence consumer protection act", in relation to preventing the use of artificial intelligence algorithms to discriminate against protected classes.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Jan 07, 2026): REFERRED TO INTERNET AND TECHNOLOGY

Summary

The bill S01962, titled the 'New York Artificial Intelligence Consumer Protection Act,' has been introduced in New York.

Business Impact

If you use AI in New York, ensure it does not discriminate against protected classes.

Key Provisions

- The bill S01962 has been introduced in New York. Details will be provided once the full text is available.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure AI algorithms do not discriminate against protected classes. | Who: Businesses using AI in decision-making. | Penalty: Potential fines for violations.
- Conduct audits of AI systems for bias. | Who: Businesses using AI. | Penalty: Potential fines for violations.

Industries Affected

Consumer Protection

Transportation

Human Resources

Education

Healthcare

Technology

Finance

Topics

Comprehensive AI

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
LITTLE		Primary
LATIMER		Primary
Joseph P. Addabbo Jr.		Primary
BROOKS		Primary
HOYLMAN		Cosponsor
REICHLIN-MELNICK		Cosponsor
STEC		Cosponsor
THOMAS		Cosponsor
Kristen Gonzalez	Democratic/Working Families	Primary

Related Bills

- A00768 (NY)

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/S1962>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.