

H0727 • Idaho

Amends existing law to revise a provision regarding video voyeurism and to revise a penalty for disclosing explicit synthetic media.

Passed Both Chambers

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Mar 25, 2026): Reported Signed by Governor on March 25, 2026 Session Law Chapter 121
Effective: 07/01/2026

Summary

House Bill 727 amends Idaho law regarding video voyeurism and revises penalties for disclosing explicit synthetic media.

Business Impact

If you create or distribute synthetic media in Idaho, you must ensure compliance with updated penalties or face legal consequences.

Key Provisions

- Revises provisions related to video voyeurism.
- Updates penalties for disclosing explicit synthetic media.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure compliance with new penalties for disclosing synthetic media | Who: Businesses creating or distributing synthetic media | Penalty: Legal consequences for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Media

Technology

General

Legal

Topics

Bill Sponsors

| Name | Party | Role |
|--------------------------|-------|---------|
| STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE | | Primary |
| WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE | | Primary |

Roll Call Votes

| Date | Description | Yea | Nay | Result |
|------------|---------------------------|-----|-----|--------|
| 2026-03-20 | Read third time in full – | 35 | 0 | Passed |
| 2026-03-03 | Read Third Time in Full – | 68 | 0 | Passed |

Official Source

<https://legislature.idaho.gov/sessioninfo/2026/legislation/H0727/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.