

HB362 • Ohio

Small Loan Act-allowable charges/automated valuation model providers

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Oct 23, 2007): To Financial Institutions, Real Estate, & Securities

Summary

The bill amends Ohio's Consumer Finance Law to allow additional charges and prohibits predetermined property valuations by automated valuation model providers.

Business Impact

If you create or disseminate synthetic media in Ohio, you must ensure it is not deceptive or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Amends sections 3517.21 and 3599.40 of the Ohio Revised Code to include synthetic media.
- Establishes penalties for the dissemination of deceptive synthetic media.
- Targets media that influences election outcomes with specific enforcement mechanisms.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure all synthetic media is not deceptive | Who: Media creators and distributors | Penalty: Potential fines or other penalties for violations
- Implement transparency measures for synthetic media | Who: Political organizations and media companies | Penalty: Potential fines or other penalties for violations

Industries Affected

Consumer Protection

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
William Batchelder	R	Sponsor
Jimmy Stewart	R	Sponsor
Gerald Stebelton	R	Sponsor
Joseph Koziura	D	Sponsor
Matt Huffman	R	Sponsor
Jay Hottinger	R	Sponsor
Cliff Hite	R	Sponsor
Ronald Gerberry	D	Sponsor
Diana Fessler	R	Sponsor
Timothy DeGeeter	D	Sponsor
David Daniels	R	Sponsor
William Coley	R	Sponsor

Official Source

http://archives.legislature.state.oh.us/bills.cfm?ID=127_HB_362

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.