

HB334 • United States (Federal)

To amend the Communications Act of 1934 to establish technical and procedural standards for artificial or prerecorded voice systems created through generative artificial intelligence, and for other purposes.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Jan 13, 2025): Referred to the House Committee on Energy and Commerce.

Summary

The bill aims to amend the Communications Act of 1934 to establish standards for AI-generated voice systems, but specific details are unknown due to lack of bill text.

Business Impact

If you use generative AI for voice systems, you must comply with new technical standards or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Aims to establish standards for AI-generated voice systems, though specifics are unavailable.
- Intends to set procedural requirements for prerecorded voice systems, pending detailed text.
- Mentions amendments to the Communications Act of 1934, but specifics are not provided.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure compliance with new technical standards for AI voice systems. | Who: Businesses using generative AI for voice communications. | Penalty: Potential fines or operational restrictions.

Industries Affected

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

Telecommunications

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Rick Allen	R	Sponsor

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/house-bill/334/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.