

HB4080 • Arizona

Artificial intelligence; nursing tasks; pilot

In Committee

Risk: Low

Study/Task Force

Summary

HB4080's title suggests AI in nursing tasks, but no assumptions about the bill's content can be made without the full text.

Business Impact

If you use AI in nursing, monitor HB4080 for potential new pilot program requirements.

Key Provisions

- The title suggests AI in nursing tasks, but no assumptions about the bill's content can be made without the full text.
- Details on healthcare settings and specific provisions will be clarified once the full bill text is available.

Compliance Checklist

- Apply to participate in the pilot program with required information | Who: Technology vendors providing AI solutions for nursing tasks | Penalty: Exclusion from the pilot program
- Monitor and ensure compliance with patient safety and privacy standards | Who: Advisory committee and participating technology vendors | Penalty: Potential disqualification from the program

Industries Affected

Healthcare

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Justin Wilmeth	Republican	Primary
Julie Willoughby	Republican	Cosponsor

Official Source

<https://apps.azleg.gov/BillStatus/BillOverview/85602>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.