

HB 1746 • Missouri

Establishes the "AI Nonsentience and Responsibility Act"

In Committee

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Mar 30, 2026): Reported Do Pass (H) - AYES: 9 NOES: 0 PRESENT: 0

Summary

The 'AI Nonsentience and Responsibility Act' in Missouri aims to regulate AI systems, though specific details on liability and ethical guidelines are not confirmed.

Business Impact

If you develop or deploy AI systems in Missouri, you must ensure compliance with the act's provisions or face potential penalties.

Key Provisions

- Proposes regulation of AI systems
- Details on liability and ethical guidelines are unconfirmed
- Aims for responsible AI system use

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure AI systems comply with the act's responsibilities | Who: Developers and users of AI | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance
- Review and update AI-related policies | Who: Businesses utilizing AI | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Technology

Artificial Intelligence

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Wood, David		Primary
Allred, Vic		Primary
Dogan, Shamed		Primary
Michael O'Donnell		Primary
Scott Miller	Republican	Primary
George Hruza	Republican	Cosponsor

Related Bills

---

- HB1462 (MO)
- HB 1769 (MO)
- HB1746 (MO)

Official Source

---

<https://openstates.org/mo/bills/2026/HB1746/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.