

HB 276 • Utah

Artificial Intelligence Modifications

Enacted

Risk: Low

Amendment

Effective: Jan 01, 2027 | Last Action (Mar 24, 2026): Governor Signed

Summary

HB 276, 'Artificial Intelligence Modifications,' is under consideration in Utah. The bill's text is not yet available; check the Utah State Legislature's website for updates.

Business Impact

The bill does not specify actions or consequences for businesses.

Industries Affected

Artificial Intelligence

Government

Technology

Consumer Protection

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Musselman, Calvin R.		Primary
Cullimore, Kirk A.		Cosponsor
Nelson, Merrill F.		Primary
Sandall, Scott D.		Cosponsor
Lyman, Phil		Primary
Abbott, Nelson T.		Primary
Vickers, Evan J.		Cosponsor
MacPherson, Matt	Republican	Primary
Weiler, Todd D.		Cosponsor
Defay, Ariel	Republican	Primary

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/ut/bills/2026/HB276/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.