

HB 807 • Ohio

Prohibit selling sensitive personal data for profit

In Committee

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (May 13, 2026): Referred to committee

Summary

This bill prohibits the sale of sensitive personal data, with exceptions for law enforcement, public health, research, legal obligations, and other permitted purposes. Penalties for violations include fines and enforcement by the Ohio Attorney General.

Business Impact

If you handle sensitive personal data in Ohio, you must ensure compliance with this bill or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits selling sensitive personal data, defined as data revealing racial or ethnic origin, health information, genetic data, biometric data, financial information, and more, for profit, with exceptions for specified purposes.
- Applies to both government and private entities.
- Amends sections 1347.01, 1347.10, 1347.99, and 1347.072 of the Ohio Revised Code.
- Penalties for violations include fines, and enforcement involves the Ohio Attorney General.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure no sale of sensitive personal data for profit. | Who: All entities handling sensitive personal data. | Penalty: Potential fines or legal action.

Industries Affected

Government

Technology

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Christine Cockley		Primary
Tristan Rader		Primary
Munira Abdullahi		Cosponsor
Sean P. Brennan		Cosponsor
Juanita O. Brent		Cosponsor
Darnell T. Brewer		Cosponsor
Karen Brownlee		Cosponsor
Ashley Bryant Bailey		Cosponsor
Michele Grim		Cosponsor
Dontavius L. Jarrells		Cosponsor
Crystal Lett		Cosponsor
Joseph A. Miller, III		Cosponsor

Related Bills

- HB807 (OH)

Official Source

<https://www.legislature.ohio.gov/legislation/136/hb807>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.