

S429 • Massachusetts

To establish a commission to investigate AI in education

Introduced

Risk: Low

Study/Task Force

Last Action (Dec 04, 2025): Accompanied a study order, see S2792

Summary

This bill proposes the establishment of a commission to investigate AI in education within Massachusetts. Note: Analysis is based on the official description; specific details will be updated once the full bill text is available.

Business Impact

If you operate in education in Massachusetts, you must prepare for potential compliance requirements by the commission's findings or face regulatory penalties.

Key Provisions

- Establishment of a commission to investigate AI in education
- Details on duties, composition, and reporting requirements are unknown without the full text; updates will follow once available

Industries Affected

Education

Technology

Topics

AI in Education

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Anne M. Gobi		Primary
F. Jay Barrows		Cosponsor
Steven S. Howitt	Republican	Cosponsor
Todd M. Smola	Republican	Cosponsor
Michael J. Barrett		Primary
Jason M. Lewis	Democratic	Cosponsor
James R. Miceli		Cosponsor
Bruce E. Tarr	Republican	Primary
Mathew J. Muratore		Cosponsor
Angelo J. Puppolo, Jr.		Cosponsor
Michael J. Soter		Cosponsor
Lindsay N. Sabadosa	Democratic	Cosponsor

Related Bills

- S 429 (MA)

Official Source

<https://malegislature.gov/Bills/194/S429>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.