

HB2152 • Hawaii

Relating To Artificial Intelligence.

Introduced

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Last Action (Jan 24, 2024): Referred to HET/LGO, CPC, FIN, referral sheet 2

Summary

Establishes a plan for generative AI use in state agencies, requiring risk assessments, expert consultations, and pilot projects from the Office of Enterprise Technology Services.

Business Impact

If you operate a state agency in Hawaii, you must assess AI risks and develop guidelines by 2025 or face legislative scrutiny.

Key Provisions

- Establishes a plan for generative AI use in state agencies.
- Requires risk assessments and reports on AI deployment.
- Mandates guidelines for procurement and training on AI.
- Involves consultation with experts for developing guidelines.
- Requires inventory of high-risk AI uses by state agencies.
- Sets communication requirements for AI interactions with the public.
- Allows state agencies to propose pilot projects for generative AI.

Compliance Checklist

- Conduct risk assessments for AI use | Who: Office of Enterprise Technology Services | Penalty: Legislative scrutiny
- Develop guidelines for AI procurement and training | Who: Office of Enterprise Technology Services | Penalty: Legislative scrutiny

Industries Affected

Government

Technology

Topics

AI in Government

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Kanani Souza	R	Sponsor
Elle Cochran	D	Sponsor

Official Source

https://www.capitol.hawaii.gov/session/measure_indiv.aspx?billtype=HB&billnumber;=2152&year;=2024

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.