

SB3320 • Illinois

VEH CD-LICENSE PLATE READERS

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Jun 26, 2024): Pursuant to Senate Rule 3-9(b) / Referred to Assignments

Summary

SB3320 amends the Illinois Vehicle Code to regulate automated license plate readers (ALPR), detailing data retention and access protocols for law enforcement.

Business Impact

If you operate ALPR systems, you must comply with data retention and access rules or face legal consequences.

Key Provisions

- Defines 'automated license plate reader' (ALPR) in Section 2-130.
- Allows retention of ALPR data for 5 years, with archiving rules after 90 days.
- Restricts access to archived data older than 90 days without written approval.
- Prohibits out-of-state agencies from searching records archived after 90 days.
- Mandates destruction of records after 5 years unless relevant to ongoing investigations.

Compliance Checklist

- Retain ALPR detections for 5 years and archive appropriately. | Who: State law enforcement agencies | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance not specified.
- Obtain written approval for accessing records older than 90 days. | Who: State law enforcement agencies | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance not specified.

Industries Affected

Law Enforcement

Data Management

Government

Technology

Transportation

Surveillance Technology

Topics

AI in Government

Autonomous Vehicles

AI in Law Enforcement

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Laura Murphy	D	Sponsor
Jason Plummer	R	Sponsor

Related Bills

- SB3257 (IL)

Official Source

<https://www.ilga.gov/legislation/BillStatus.asp?DocNum=3320&GAID;=17&DocTypeID;=SB&SessionID;=112&GA;=103>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.