

LB642 • Nebraska

Adopt the Artificial Intelligence Consumer Protection Act

Enacted

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Last Action (Apr 17, 2026): Indefinitely postponed

Summary

LB642 proposes the Artificial Intelligence Consumer Protection Act, but specific details cannot be confirmed without the full bill text.

Business Impact

If you use AI in your products or services in Nebraska, you must comply with consumer protection standards by the effective date or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Specific provisions of the bill are unverified without the full bill text.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure transparency in AI operations and decision-making. | Who: Businesses using AI technologies. | Penalty: Fines or other penalties for non-compliance.
- Implement consumer protection measures as outlined in the bill. | Who: All entities deploying AI systems. | Penalty: Potential legal action or fines.

Industries Affected

Consumer Protection

Topics

Comprehensive AI

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Eliot Bostar	N	Sponsor

Official Source

https://nebraskalegislature.gov/bills/view_bill.php?DocumentID=58992

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.