

H63 • Massachusetts

To protect biometric information

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (May 13, 2024): Accompanied a new draft, see H4632

Summary

Massachusetts bill H63 is introduced to protect biometric information, but the text is unreadable.

Business Impact

If you handle biometric data, you must comply with new rules once clarified.

Compliance Checklist

- Obtain explicit consent for biometric data collection. | Who: Covered entities in Massachusetts. | Penalty: Legal penalties for non-compliance.
- Maintain a Biometric Privacy Policy. | Who: Covered entities in Massachusetts. | Penalty: Legal penalties for non-compliance.

Industries Affected

Security

Technology

Healthcare

Data Security

Topics

AI Privacy

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Dylan Fernandes	D	Sponsor

Mindy Domb	D	Sponsor
Bud Williams	D	Sponsor
Tommy Vitolo	D	Sponsor

Related Bills

- S43 (MA)
- H1985 (MA)

Official Source

<https://malegislature.gov/Bills/193/H63>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.