

S06955 • New York

Establishes the artificial intelligence training data transparency act requiring developers of generative artificial intelligence models or services to post on the developer's website information regarding the data used by the developer to train the generative artificial intelligence model or...

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Mar 04, 2026): ADVANCED TO THIRD READING

Summary

The bill requires developers of generative AI models to disclose training data information on their websites.

Business Impact

If you develop generative AI models, you must disclose your training data details on your website or face potential penalties.

Key Provisions

- Developers must post information on their websites about the data used to train generative AI models, including a high-level summary of datasets.

Industries Affected

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

Topics

AI Transparency

Comprehensive AI

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
SERINO		Primary
KAMINSKY		Primary
KENNEDY		Primary
Michelle Hinchey	Democratic/Working Families	Primary
Jamaal Bailey	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
Jeremy Cooney	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
Pete Harckham	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
Brad Hoylman-Sigal		Cosponsor
Liz Krueger	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
Jack M. Martins	Republican/Conservative	Cosponsor
Rachel May	Democratic/Working Families	Cosponsor
Zellnor Myrie	Democratic	Cosponsor

Roll Call Votes

Date	Description	Yea	Nay	Result
2026-02-25	Internet And Technology Vote - Version: A	6	1	Passed

Related Bills

- A06578 (NY)

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/S6955>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.