

LR362 • Nebraska

Interim study to examine the dangers posed by artificial intelligence for elections

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Study/Task Force

Last Action (Apr 05, 2024): Referred to Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee

Summary

This bill initiates an interim study to investigate the risks associated with artificial intelligence in elections in Nebraska.

Business Impact

If you are involved in election processes in Nebraska, you must prepare for potential regulations on AI use in elections as findings emerge.

Key Provisions

- Initiates an interim study on AI dangers in elections
- Focuses on the impact of AI on elections

Industries Affected

Political Consulting

Election Services

General

Technology

Election Technology

Elections

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Groene		Primary
DeBoer		Primary
McDonnell		Primary
Brewer		Primary

Official Source

---

https://nebraskalegislature.gov/bills/view\_bill.php?DocumentID=56946

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.