

LB904 • Nebraska

Appropriate federal funds to the University of Nebraska for an Artificial Intelligence, Cybersecurity, and Holland Computer Center facility

Introduced

Risk: Low

Comprehensive

Last Action (Apr 20, 2022): Indefinitely postponed

Summary

LB904 was indefinitely postponed on April 20, 2022, and is no longer active. It aimed to appropriate federal funds to the University of Nebraska for a facility dedicated to Artificial Intelligence, Cybersecurity, and the Holland Computer Center.

Business Impact

If you operate in AI or cybersecurity in Nebraska, you may benefit from new resources and research opportunities from this facility.

Key Provisions

- Appropriates federal funds to the University of Nebraska.
- Focuses on establishing a facility for Artificial Intelligence.
- Includes provisions for Cybersecurity and the Holland Computer Center.
- Referred to the Appropriations Committee.
- Indefinitely postponed on April 20, 2022.

Industries Affected

Cybersecurity

Technology

Education

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Myron Dorn	N	Sponsor

Official Source

https://nebraskalegislature.gov/bills/view_bill.php?DocumentID=47301

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.