

SB2425 • Texas

Relating to the regulation of automated motor vehicles; creating a criminal offense.

In Committee

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (May 26, 2025): Placed on General State Calendar

Summary

This bill regulates automated motor vehicles and establishes a criminal offense related to their operation.

Business Impact

If you operate automated vehicles in Texas, you must comply with new regulations or face criminal penalties.

Key Provisions

- Addresses the regulation of automated motor vehicles in Texas.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure compliance with automated vehicle regulations | Who: Businesses operating automated vehicles | Penalty: Potential criminal charges for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Technology

Law Enforcement

Automotive

Transportation

Topics

Autonomous Vehicles

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Menéndez		Primary
Zaffirini		Primary
Nichols		Primary
West		Cosponsor
Capriglione		Primary

Roll Call Votes

Date	Description	Yea	Nay	Result
2025-04-16	Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requi	30	1	Passed

Official Source

<https://capitol.texas.gov/BillLookup/History.aspx?LegSess=89R&Bill;=SB2425>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.