

A2495 • New Jersey

Requires DLPS to establish training program to prepare law enforcement to interact with autonomous vehicles.

Introduced

Risk: Low

Amendment

Last Action (Feb 14, 2022): Introduced, Referred to Assembly Law and Public Safety Committee

Summary

The bill requires DLPS to establish a training program for law enforcement to interact with autonomous vehicles.

Business Impact

If you operate in Hoboken, you may benefit from enterprise zone incentives.

Key Provisions

- Requires DLPS to establish a training program for law enforcement.
- Focuses on interactions with autonomous vehicles.

Compliance Checklist

- Consider applying for enterprise zone benefits. | Who: Businesses in Hoboken City. | Penalty: No penalties specified

Industries Affected

Retail

Local Businesses

Topics

Autonomous Vehicles

AI in Law Enforcement

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Carol Murphy	D	Sponsor

Related Bills

- A3757 (NJ)
- A2807 (NJ)

Official Source

https://pub.njleg.gov/Bills/2024/A2500/2495_11.HTM

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.