

A00519 • New York

Prohibits the use of facial recognition and biometric information as the sole factor in determining the existence of probable cause to place in custody or arrest an individual.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Jan 03, 2024): referred to governmental operations

Summary

This bill prohibits using facial recognition and biometric data as the sole basis for probable cause in arrests or custody placements.

Business Impact

If you use facial recognition technology in New York, you must ensure it is not the sole basis for probable cause in arrests or face legal challenges.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits the use of facial recognition as the sole factor for probable cause.
- Prohibits the use of biometric information as the sole factor for probable cause.
- Aims to protect individual rights against wrongful arrests.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure facial recognition is not the sole basis for probable cause. | Who: Law enforcement agencies in New York. | Penalty: Potential legal challenges for wrongful arrests.

Industries Affected

Technology Providers

Law Enforcement

Technology

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
ROSENTHAL L		Primary
JONES		Primary
Linda Rosenthal	Democratic	Primary
John Zaccaro Jr.		Primary

Related Bills

- A01447 (NY)
- A10411 (NY)

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2023/A519>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.