

SF 4509 • Minnesota

Artificial intelligence safety and disclosure requirements establishment (RAISE Act)

Unknown

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Last Action (Apr 07, 2026): Author added Boldon

Summary

The RAISE Act's objectives and specifics remain unverified due to the lack of available bill text.

Business Impact

If you develop or deploy AI systems in Minnesota, you must comply with safety and disclosure requirements or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Proposes a framework for AI safety and transparency.
- Details of disclosure requirements are speculative.
- Potential penalties are unverified without the bill text.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure AI systems meet established safety requirements | Who: AI developers and users | Penalty: Potential fines for non-compliance
- Disclose capabilities and limitations of AI systems | Who: AI developers and users | Penalty: Potential fines for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Technology

Consumer Protection

Artificial Intelligence

Topics

Related Bills

---

- SF4509 (MN)

Official Source

---

<https://openstates.org/mn/bills/2025-2026/SF4509/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.