

HB7390 • United States (Federal)

SELF DRIVE Act of 2026 Safely Ensuring Lives Future Deployment and Research In Vehicle Evolution Act of 2026

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Feb 10, 2026): Forwarded by Subcommittee to Full Committee by the Yeas and Nays: 12 - 11.

Summary

The SELF DRIVE Act of 2026 proposes amendments to Title 49, with speculative details on NHTSA's roles and safety measures, pending full bill text verification.

Business Impact

If you operate in automated vehicle technology, you must comply with new safety standards by 2026 or face significant penalties.

Key Provisions

- Speculative insights on NHTSA's roles in regulating safety standards for automated vehicles, pending confirmation from the bill text.
- Speculative amendments to Title 49 to establish safety measures and regulatory frameworks for testing and deployment of automated driving systems, subject to verification of specific sections.

Compliance Checklist

- Implement safety measures for automated driving systems | Who: Manufacturers of automated vehicles | Penalty: Potential fines and restrictions on vehicle sales

Industries Affected

Technology

Transportation

Automotive

Topics

Autonomous Vehicles

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/house-bill/7390/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.