

A 1892 • New Jersey

Prohibits deepfake pornography and imposes criminal and civil penalties for non-consensual disclosure.

Unknown

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Summary

This bill prohibits the non-consensual disclosure of deepfake pornography, with unspecified criminal and civil penalties.

Business Impact

If you create or distribute digital content in New Jersey, you must ensure it does not involve non-consensual deepfake pornography or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits the non-consensual disclosure of deepfake pornography.
- Defines key terms such as 'deepfake' and 'non-consensual disclosure.'
- Specific penalties, exceptions, and defenses are unverified.
- The scope of application to all forms of deepfake pornography is unverified.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure all digital content complies with consent requirements. | Who: Content creators and distributors. | Penalty: Potential fines and criminal charges.

Industries Affected

Digital Media

Content Creation

Topics

Related Bills

- A1892 (NJ)
- S 1159 (NJ)
- A 1359 (NJ)
- S1159 (NJ)
- S3707 (NJ)

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/nj/bills/221/A1892/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.