

A 1892 • New Jersey

Prohibits deepfake pornography and imposes criminal and civil penalties for non-consensual disclosure.

Unknown

Risk: High

Comprehensive

Summary

This bill prohibits deepfake pornography, defined as digitally manipulated media depicting explicit content without consent, and imposes specified criminal and civil penalties.

Business Impact

If you create or distribute digital content in New Jersey, you must ensure it does not involve non-consensual deepfake pornography or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits deepfake pornography, defined as digitally manipulated media depicting explicit content without consent.
- Imposes specific criminal penalties, including fines and imprisonment.
- Imposes civil penalties, such as damages and injunctions.
- Includes exceptions for law enforcement and certain defenses, such as lack of intent to harm.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure all digital content complies with consent requirements. | Who: Content creators and distributors. | Penalty: Potential fines and criminal charges.

Industries Affected

Digital Media

Content Creation

Topics

Related Bills

- A1892 (NJ)
- S 1159 (NJ)
- A 1359 (NJ)
- S1159 (NJ)
- S3707 (NJ)

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/nj/bills/221/A1892/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.