

HB 3453 • Oklahoma

Artificial intelligence; definitions; establishing the rights of Oklahomans when interacting with artificial intelligence; effective date.

Unknown

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Summary

Based on the title, HB 3453 addresses AI interactions in Oklahoma, but details are speculative without the full bill text. The title mentions an effective date.

Business Impact

If you operate AI technologies in Oklahoma, you must ensure compliance with new rights for users by the effective date or face potential penalties.

Key Provisions

- Based on the title, the bill addresses AI interactions, but specific details are speculative without the full text.
- The title mentions an effective date, though details are not available.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure compliance with user rights when using AI. | Who: Businesses operating AI technologies in Oklahoma. | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance, specifics not provided.

Industries Affected

Data Services

Technology

AI Development

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/ok/bills/2024/HB3453/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.