

HB 2341 • Tennessee

State Government - As introduced, requires each department of the executive branch to develop a plan to prevent the malicious and unlawful use of artificial intelligence for the purpose of interfering with the operation of the department, its agencies and divisions, and persons and entities regulated by the respective department; requires each department to report its plan, findings, and recommendations to each member of the general assembly no later than January 1, 2025. - Amends TCA Title 2; Title 4; Title 8; Title 38; Title 39 and Title 47, Chapter 18.

Unknown

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Summary

Each executive branch department must create a plan to prevent AI misuse and report findings to the general assembly by January 1, 2025.

Business Impact

If you operate a department in Tennessee, you must develop an AI misuse prevention plan by January 1, 2025, or face potential legislative scrutiny.

Key Provisions

- Each executive branch department must develop a plan to prevent AI misuse.
- Plans must address interference with department operations and regulated entities.
- Reports on findings and recommendations are due by January 1, 2025.

Compliance Checklist

- Develop a plan to prevent AI misuse | Who: Each department of the executive branch | Penalty: Potential legislative scrutiny
- Report findings and recommendations | Who: Each department of the executive branch | Penalty: Potential legislative scrutiny

Industries Affected

---

Government

Public Sector

Topics

---

AI in Government

Related Bills

---

- SB 2461 (TN)

Official Source

---

<https://openstates.org/tn/bills/113/HB2341/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.