

LR 421 • Nebraska

Interim study to examine the current status of artificial intelligence legislation occurring at the state and federal levels to address risks to public safety and to determine what action Nebraska should take to address such risks

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Study/Task Force

Last Action (Mar 30, 2026): Referred to Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee

Summary

This bill initiates a study to assess AI legislation at state and federal levels, specifically focusing on addressing risks to public safety and determining necessary actions for Nebraska.

Business Impact

If you operate in Nebraska and use AI, you must stay informed about upcoming regulations or face potential compliance issues.

Key Provisions

- Initiates an interim study on AI legislation.
- Examines risks to public safety associated with AI.
- Determines necessary actions for Nebraska regarding AI regulation.

Industries Affected

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

General

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Tanya Storer	N	Sponsor

Official Source

https://nebraskalegislature.gov/bills/view_bill.php?DocumentID=65874

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.