

LR 421 • Nebraska

Interim study to examine the current status of artificial intelligence legislation occurring at the state and federal levels to address risks to public safety and to determine what action Nebraska should take to address such risks

Unknown

Risk: Low

Study/Task Force

Summary

This interim study will assess AI legislation at state and federal levels and suggest actions for Nebraska to mitigate public safety risks.

Business Impact

If you operate in Nebraska and use AI, you must stay informed about potential regulations or face compliance challenges.

Key Provisions

- Conduct an interim study on AI legislation.
- Examine risks to public safety related to AI.
- Suggest actions for Nebraska regarding AI regulation.

Industries Affected

Technology

Public Safety

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/ne/bills/109/LR421/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.