

A 4729 • New Jersey

Requires disclosure to be made when generative artificial intelligence is used to operate chatbots that provide election related information.

Unknown

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Summary

This bill mandates disclosure when generative AI is used in chatbots providing election-related information in New Jersey. Full bill text is needed for details.

Business Impact

If you operate chatbots using AI for election info in New Jersey, you must disclose AI usage or face potential penalties.

Key Provisions

- Mandates disclosure of AI usage in chatbots for election information, based on the official description. Full bill text is needed for details on format, timing, penalties, and enforcement.

Compliance Checklist

- Disclose the use of generative AI in chatbots. | Who: Entities operating chatbots providing election information. | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance may apply.

Industries Affected

Election Services

Technology

Topics

AI in Political Advertising

AI Transparency

User-Facing AI

Official Source

https://pub.njleg.gov/Bills/2024/A5000/4729_I1.HTM

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.