

A 222 • New York

Relates to liability for misleading, incorrect, contradictory or harmful information provided to a user by a chatbot

Unknown

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Summary

This bill addresses liability for misleading, incorrect, or harmful information from chatbots, based on the official description. Full provisions are not accessible.

Business Impact

If you operate a chatbot in New York, you must ensure accurate information is provided to users or face potential liability.

Key Provisions

- Addresses liability for misleading, incorrect, or harmful information from chatbots.
- Specific provisions and requirements cannot be confirmed without the full bill text.
- The analysis is based solely on the official description, without detailed provisions.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure chatbot provides accurate information to users | Who: Businesses operating chatbots | Penalty: Potential liability for misleading information

Industries Affected

Technology

Customer Service

Topics

User-Facing AI

AI Liability

Related Bills

- S 5668 (NY)

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/ny/bills/2025-2026/A222/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.