

S 429 • Massachusetts

An Act to establish a commission to investigate AI in education

Unknown

Risk: Medium

Study/Task Force

Summary

This bill aims to create a commission to investigate AI's role in education in Massachusetts. Note: Specific details about the commission's composition and objectives should be verified once the full bill text is available.

Business Impact

If you operate educational services in Massachusetts, you must prepare for potential regulations on AI use in education.

Key Provisions

- Establishment of a commission to investigate AI in education
- Note: Details on the commission's composition and objectives should be verified once the full bill text is available
- Note: Specific areas of AI in education to be investigated should be verified once the full bill text is available

Compliance Checklist

- Engage with the commission's findings | Who: Educational institutions and technology providers

Industries Affected

Education

Technology

Topics

Related Bills

- S429 (MA)

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/ma/bills/194th/S429/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.