

SB366 • California

Employment: artificial intelligence.

Unknown

Risk: Low

Study/Task Force

Last Action (Feb 02, 2026): Returned to Secretary of Senate pursuant to Joint Rule 56.

Summary

SB366 mandates a study on AI's impact on employment, due by June 1, 2027.

Business Impact

If you use AI in California, expect a study on its employment impact by 2027.

Key Provisions

- Department of General Services to contract with UCLA Labor Center for AI study.
- Study to evaluate AI's impact on worker well-being, job quality, and state revenues.
- Report findings to Legislature by June 1, 2027.
- Provisions repealed upon report submission.

Compliance Checklist

- Contract with UCLA Labor Center for AI impact study. | Who: Department of General Services

Industries Affected

Technology

Labor

Topics

Comprehensive AI

Official Source

https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billTextClient.xhtml?bill_id=202520260SB366#99INT

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.