

S0936 • Florida

Statewide Study on Automation and Workforce Impact

Dead

Risk: Low

Study/Task Force

Last Action (Apr 29, 2025): Laid on Table

Summary

This bill requires a study on the economic impact of automation, AI, and robotics on Florida's workforce, with a report due to the Governor and Legislature by a specified date.

Business Impact

If you employ workers in Florida, you must be aware of the upcoming report on automation's impact on jobs by the specified date.

Key Provisions

- Requires a study on the economic impact of automation, AI, and robotics on employment.
- Authorizes consultation with specified entities for data collection.
- Mandates submission of a report to the Governor and Legislature by a specified date.

Compliance Checklist

- Conduct a study on automation and AI's impact on employment | Who: Bureau of Workforce Statistics and Economic Research
- Submit findings to the Governor and Legislature | Who: Bureau of Workforce Statistics and Economic Research

Industries Affected

Technology

Employment Services

Topics

Related Bills

- H0827 (FL)

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.