

H8077 • Rhode Island

Provides for municipal and state police authorities to acquire and to utilize automated license plate readers and identify what data may be collected and in what ways the data can be used.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (Mar 24, 2026): Committee recommended measure be held for further study

Summary

This bill allows municipal and state police to use ALPRs. The official description suggests provisions on data collection and usage, but the full bill text is unavailable.

Business Impact

If you operate in law enforcement, you must comply with data collection guidelines by the effective date or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Permits municipal and state police to acquire and use automated license plate readers. The official description suggests specific provisions on data collection and usage, but the full bill text is unavailable.

Compliance Checklist

- Develop internal policies for ALPR usage | Who: Municipal and state police departments
- Ensure data collection aligns with outlined provisions | Who: Municipal and state police departments

Industries Affected

Law Enforcement

Technology

Government

Surveillance Technology

Topics

AI in Law Enforcement

Official Source

<https://status.rilegislature.gov/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.